TO THE SENIORS:

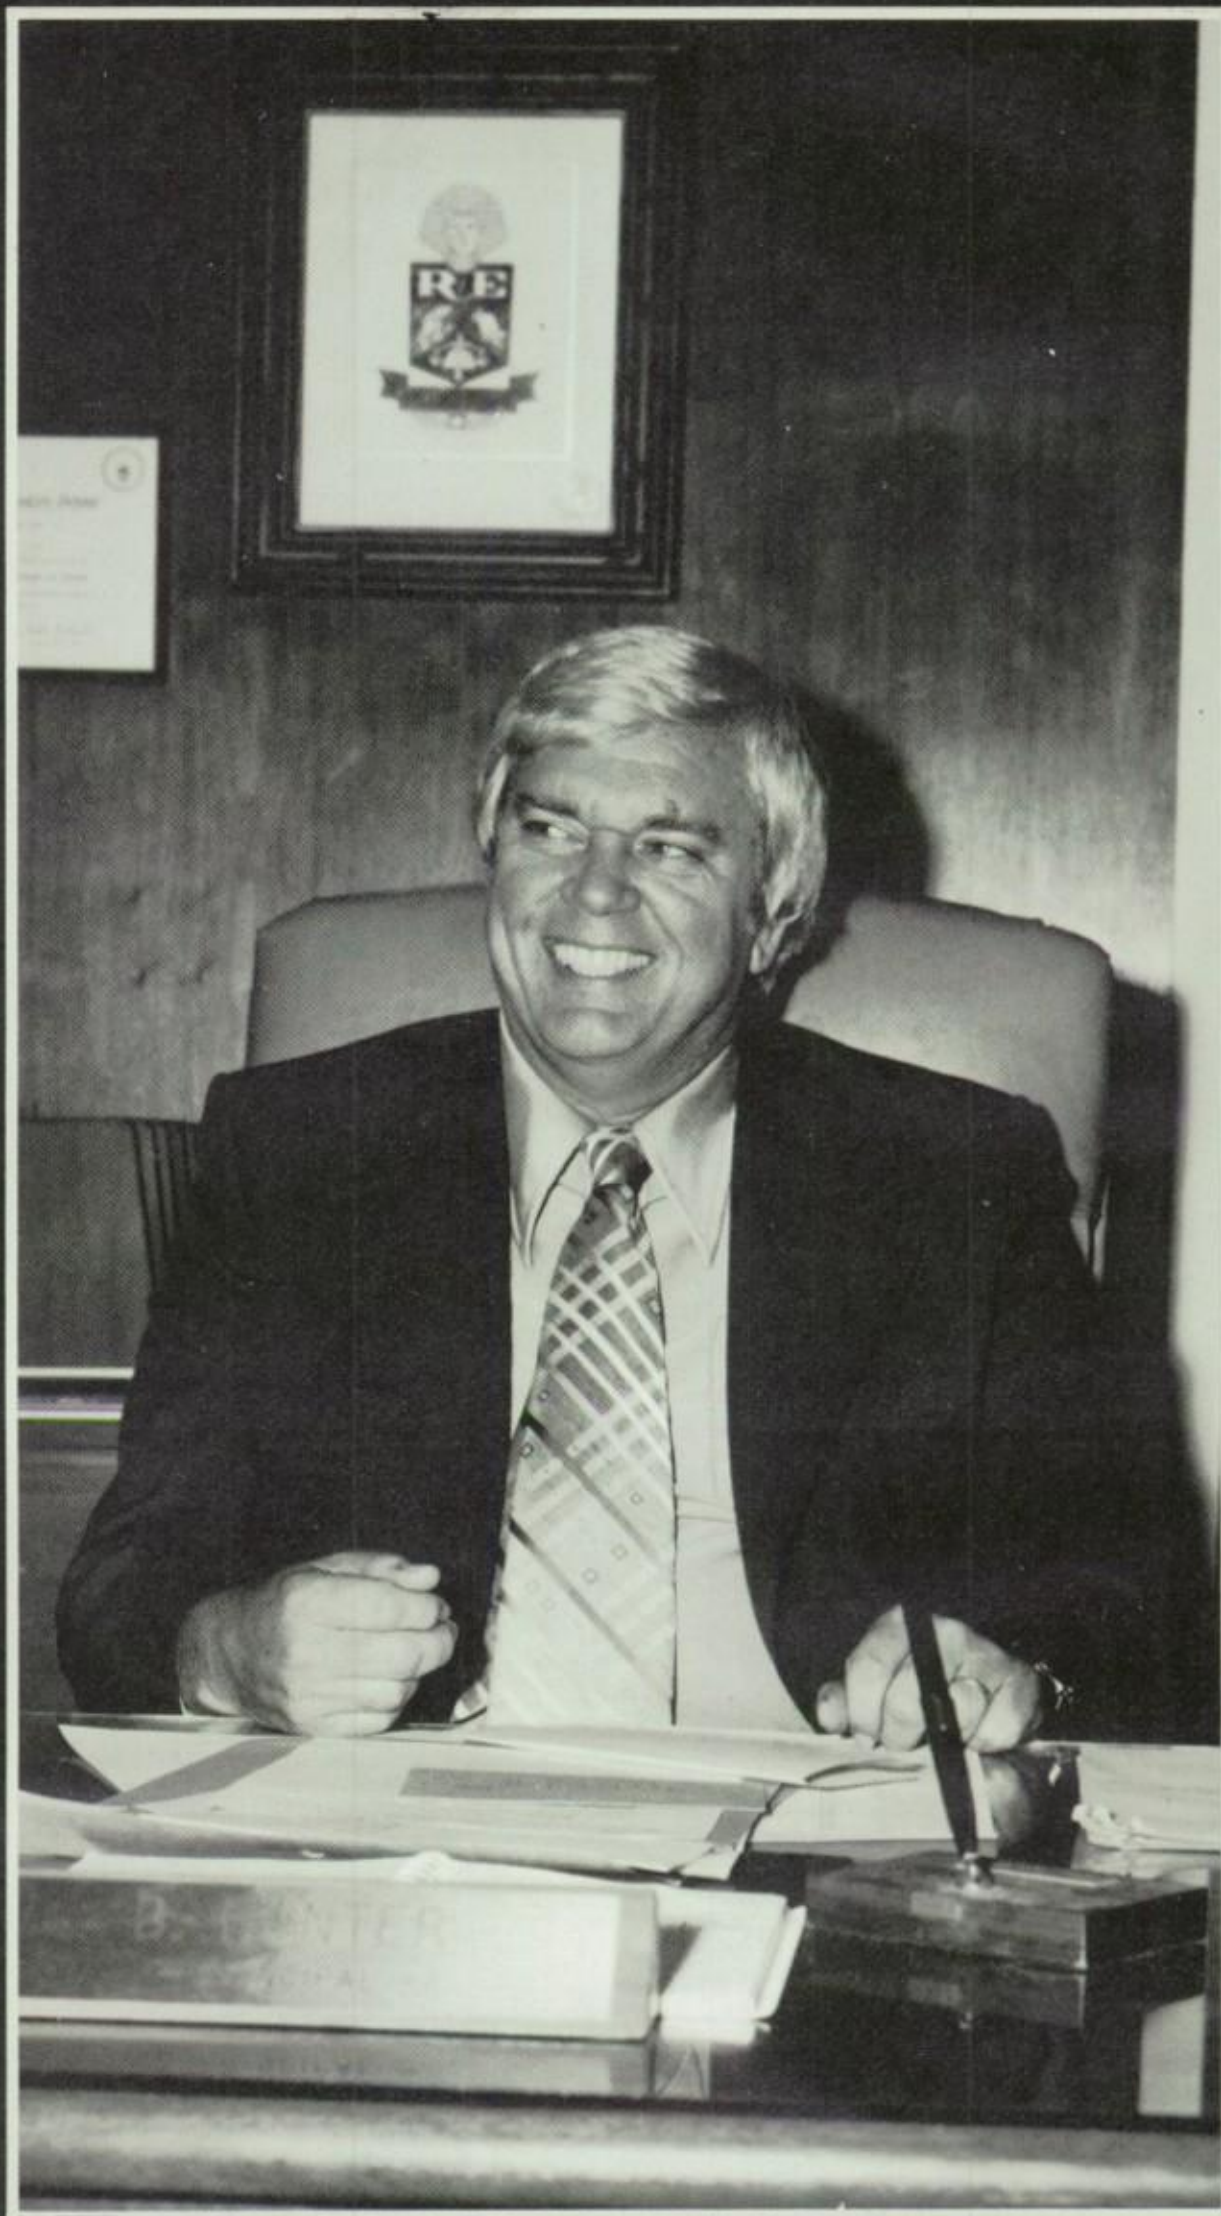

Rewards of life are earned by the "extra" effort we put into our endeavors.

In most instances, it's the "extra" effort, or the lack of it, that determines whether we just get by or we get ahead. If you look at all successful people, you find that they have one common bond, they are willing to give that "extra" effort. They are not satisfied with merely doing what is required.

In order to see if you are willing to give that "extra" effort, you should ask yourself the following questions: Do you take personal interest in everything you do? Do you try to increase your knowledge and develop a capacity to assume greater responsibilities? Do you look for ways of doing a job better? Do you make a point of being pleasant and agreeable with people? Do you continuously improve yourself mentally, morally, and spiritually? Do you waste time, rush to complete a job, and quit as soon as you have done what is required?

No one can compel you to exert any "extra" effort. This is a decision you must make for yourself.

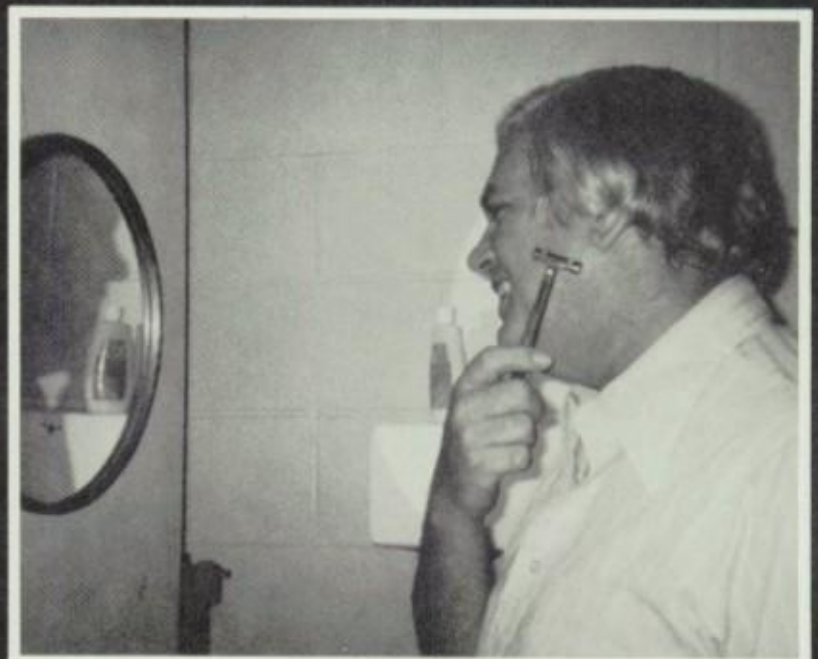

B. E. Hunter III
Principal

BOSS

Mr. Hunter sets the example for all R. E. students and faculty during the colder winter months when electricity is sparse. A warm fire is always refreshing and keeps that heating bill down, says Mr. Hunter. He also tries to keep the city school heating bill down during and after school hours. The old-fashioned way is the best as Mr. Hunter proves to us on a typical school morning. Isn't he the picture of health?

ENERGY

The most prevalent topic today in the world, America, Tennessee, Memphis, and Raleigh-Egypt is Energy and the lack of it. Our books purpose is not to explain the Energy Crisis throughout the world, America, Tennessee, or Memphis, but to focus on Raleigh-Egypt and our specific gaps.

As our year began we realized we wouldn't be able to cruise through McDonalds quite as much as we used to for the lack of gas and the increase of its price. Our coats stayed on our bodies throughout the day much longer than they stayed in our lockers, from the lack of heat.

Although we were missing heat and gas at the beginning of the school year, the most essential energy we were missing was people energy. As time went by we were able to recharge ourselves and provide our own fuel by making new friends and becoming closer.

Energy Starts At Sunrise For Most Of Us.

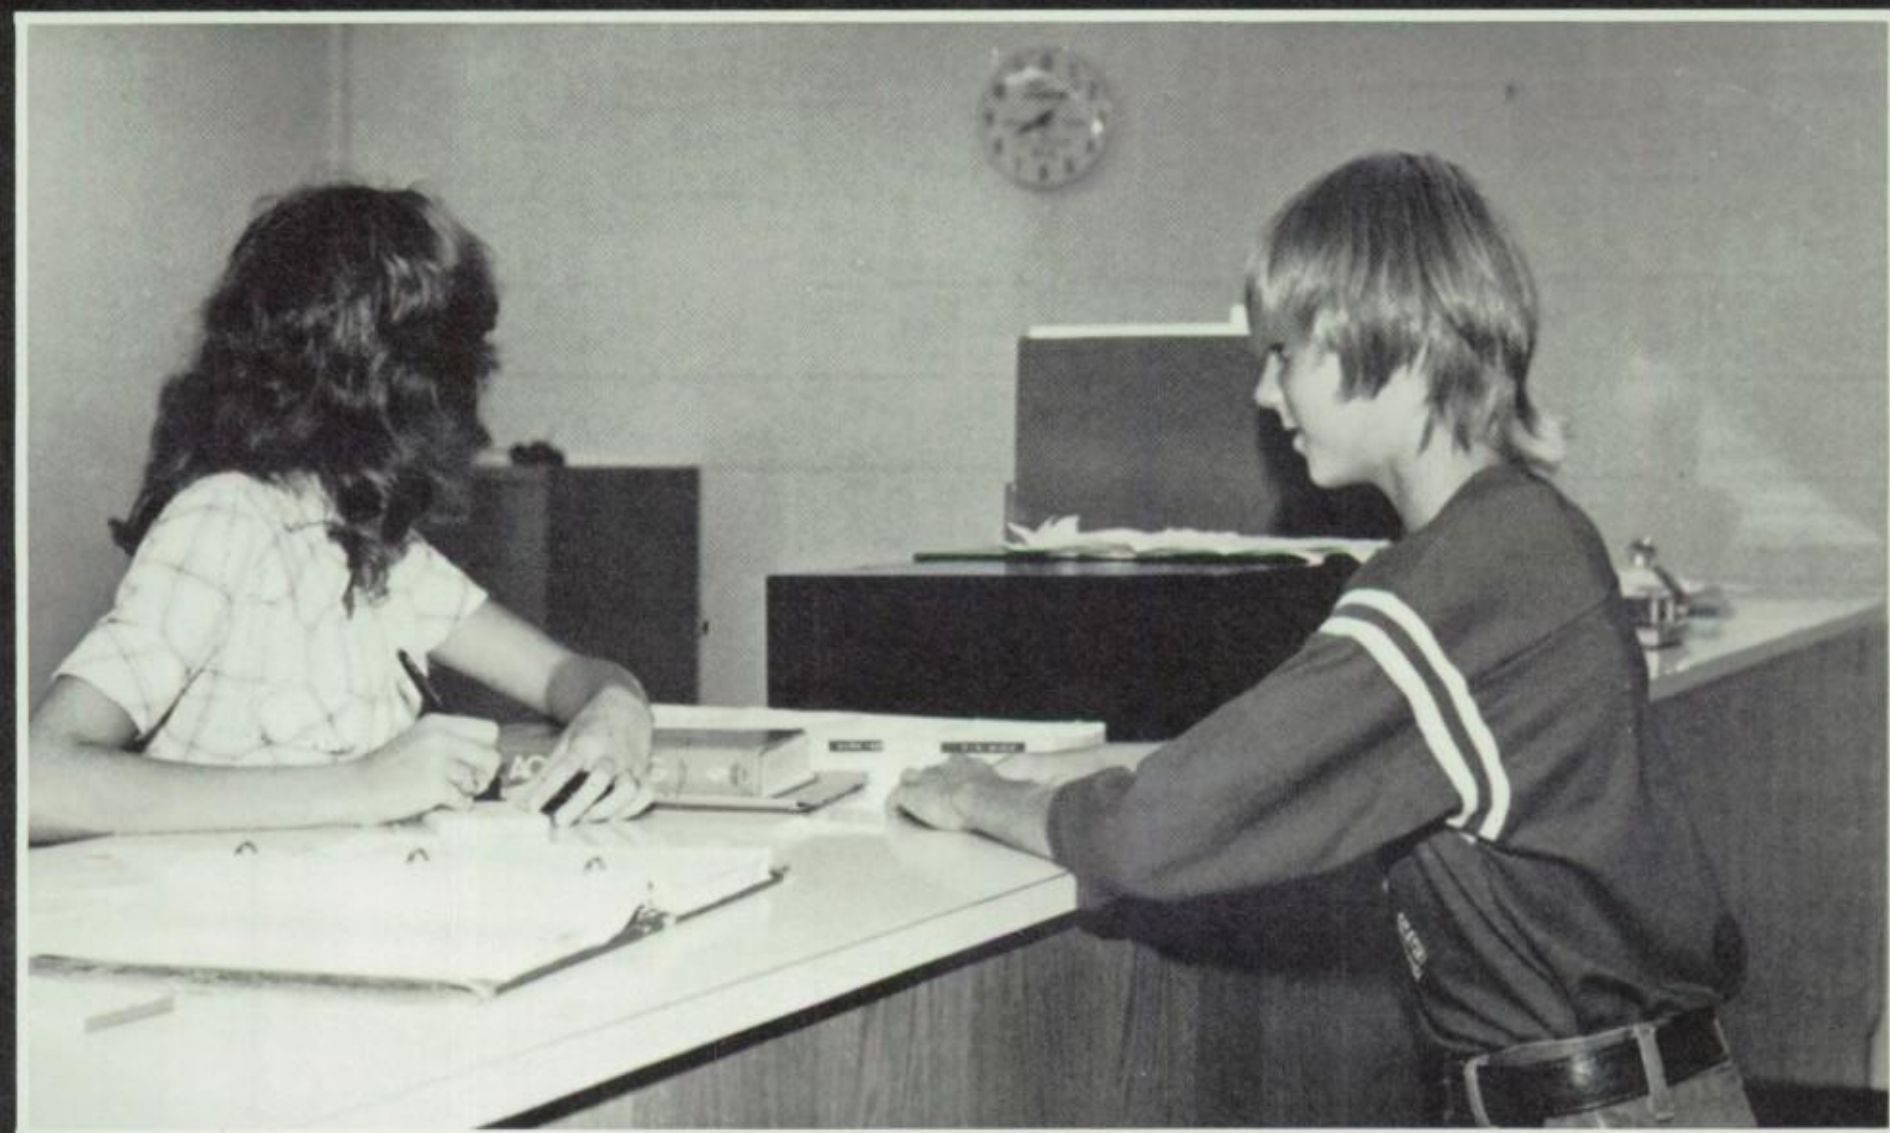

A normal day at R. E. usually begins around 6:00 a.m. Oh no, school doesn't start at 6:00 but getting ready does. Evidently Eddie McDowell hasn't heard his alarm go off yet, or has he? Looks like Amy Kyle's one step ahead of him. Kim Kochenderfer is already at school but by the expression on his face, he wants to be where Eddie is.

Well . . . At Least For Some Of Us!

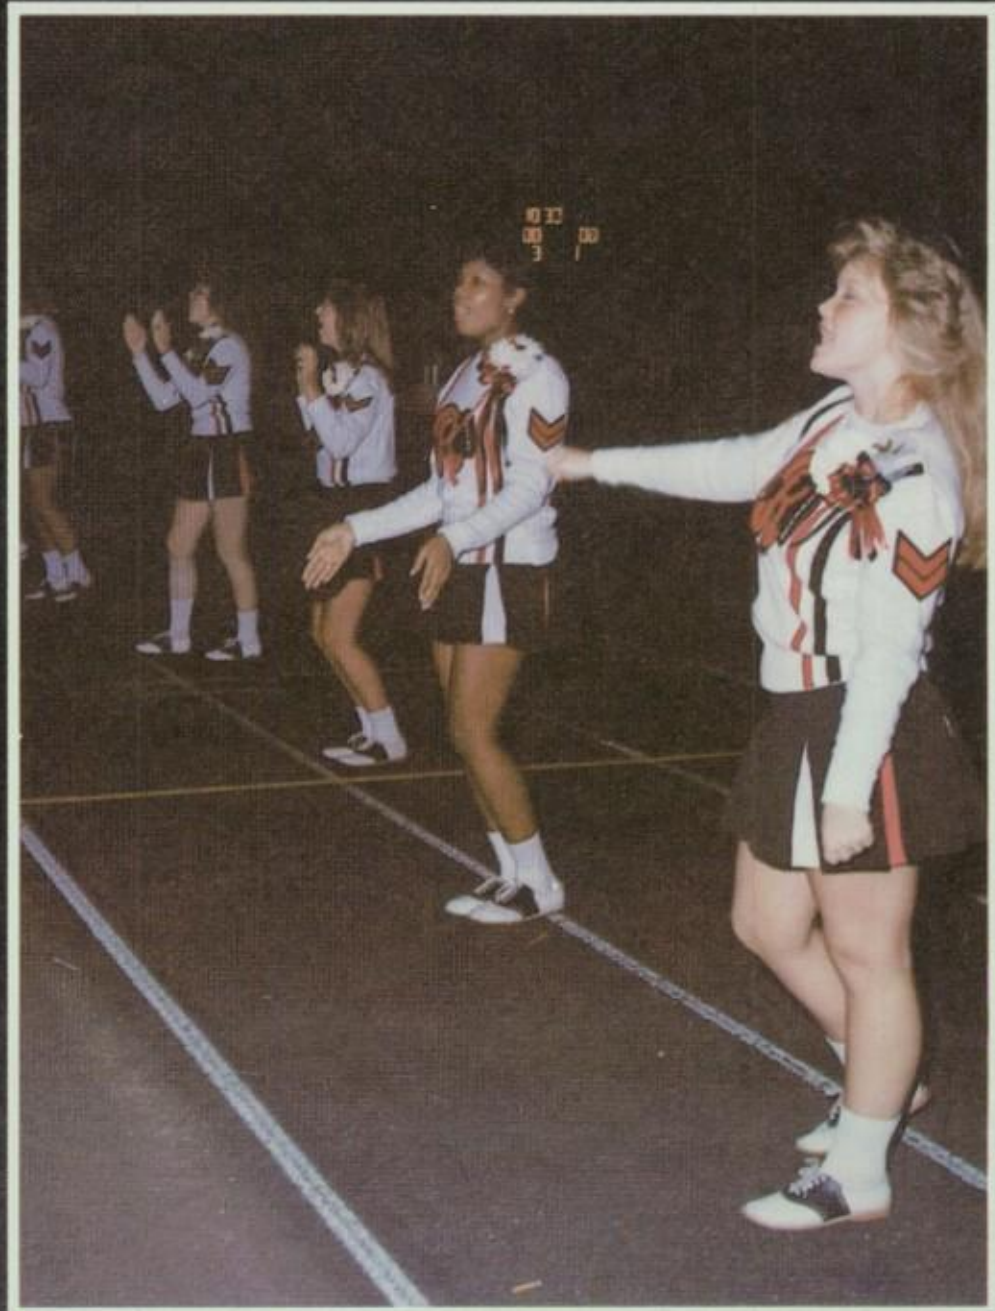

For those of us who miss the second warning that we must get out of bed: the consequences can be tedious and time consuming. It appears that Becky Mosby will be asking her parents for a ride to school this morning. Bryan Ward is going through the Attendance Office to pick up his tardy slip and admit to class.

Spirit At Games And Pep Rallies

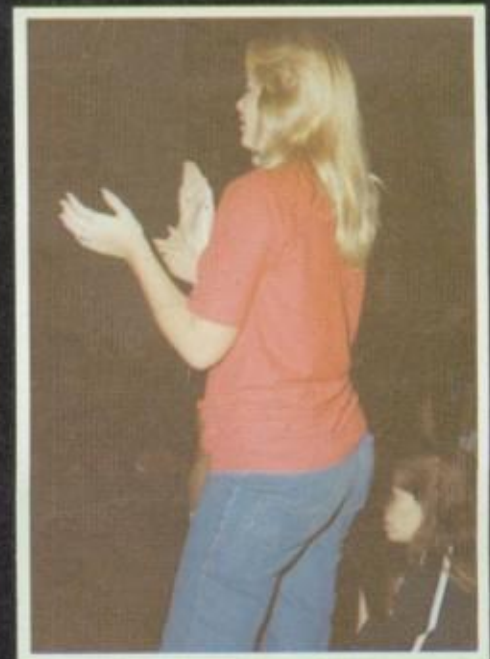

Game days and nights are an exciting time for Pharaoh students. The morning consists of an action-packed pep rally organized by the cheerleaders. The Pep Rallies include skits, class competition, chants, and cheers. Everyone has a good time and prefer cheering to class.

Show "Pharaoh Energy."

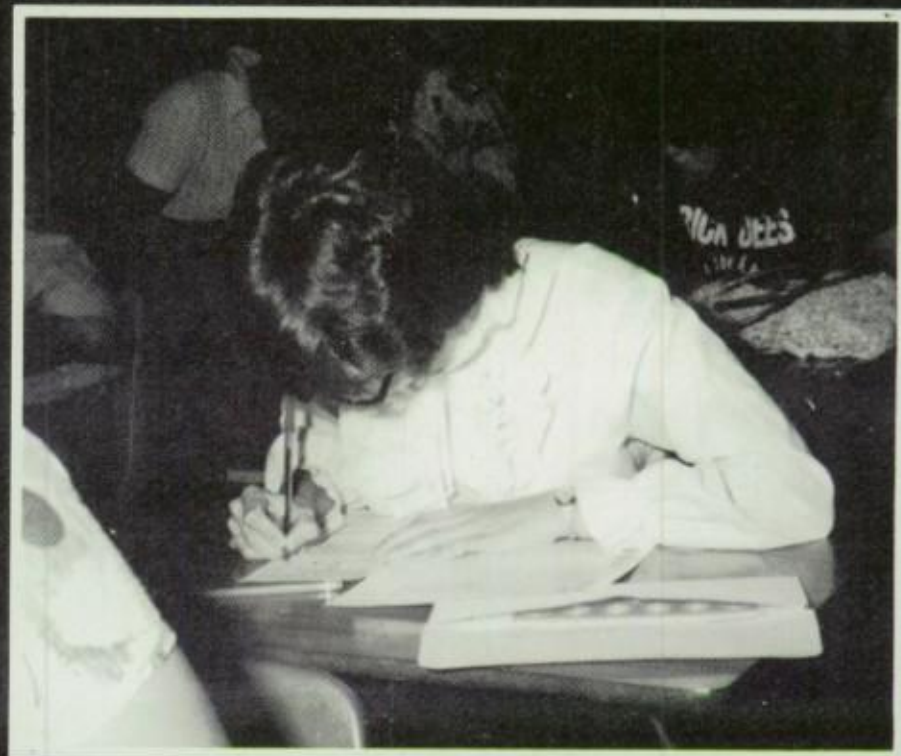

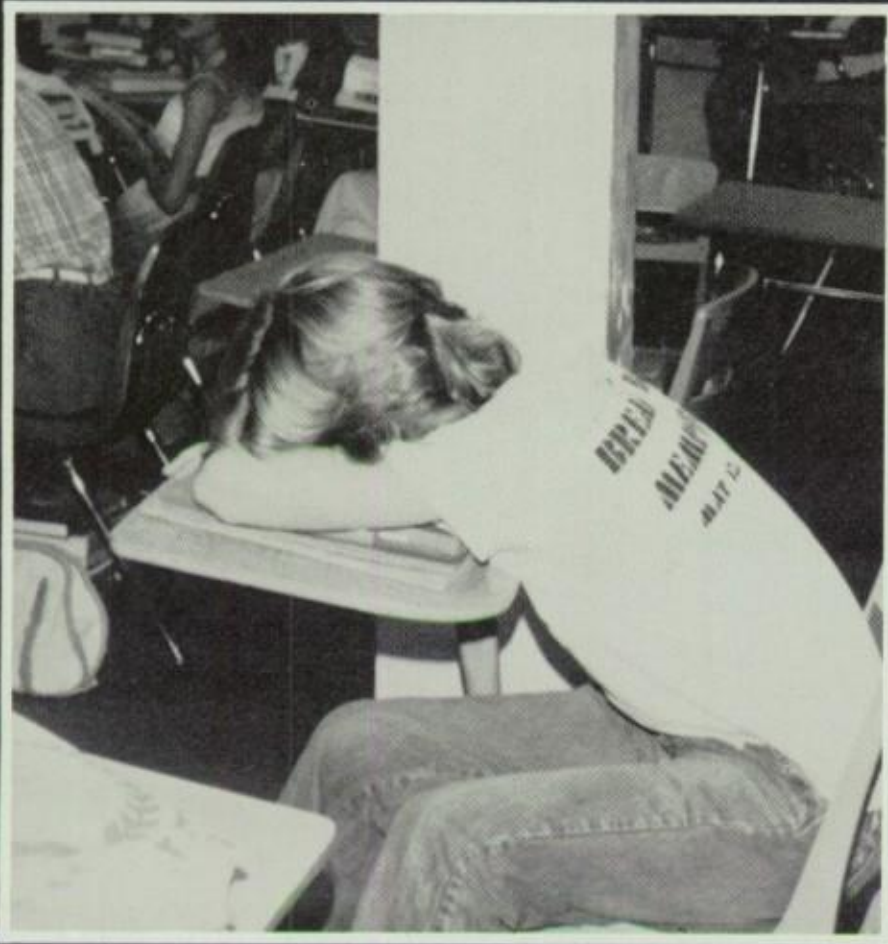

The arrival of the game finds students bustling about preparing for a victory signifying "PHARAOH ENERGY."

Students Rack Their Brains For Knowledge Power.

The Bland triplets (Lisa, Ellen, and Tommy) are making plans for the future while browsing through college manuals. Greg Russell just couldn't make it through that enlightening lecture this morning. Robin Clark is going to know her lessons well. As usual, Mr. Gill has the attention of all his Senior Economics class. It looks as though they are all full of questions.

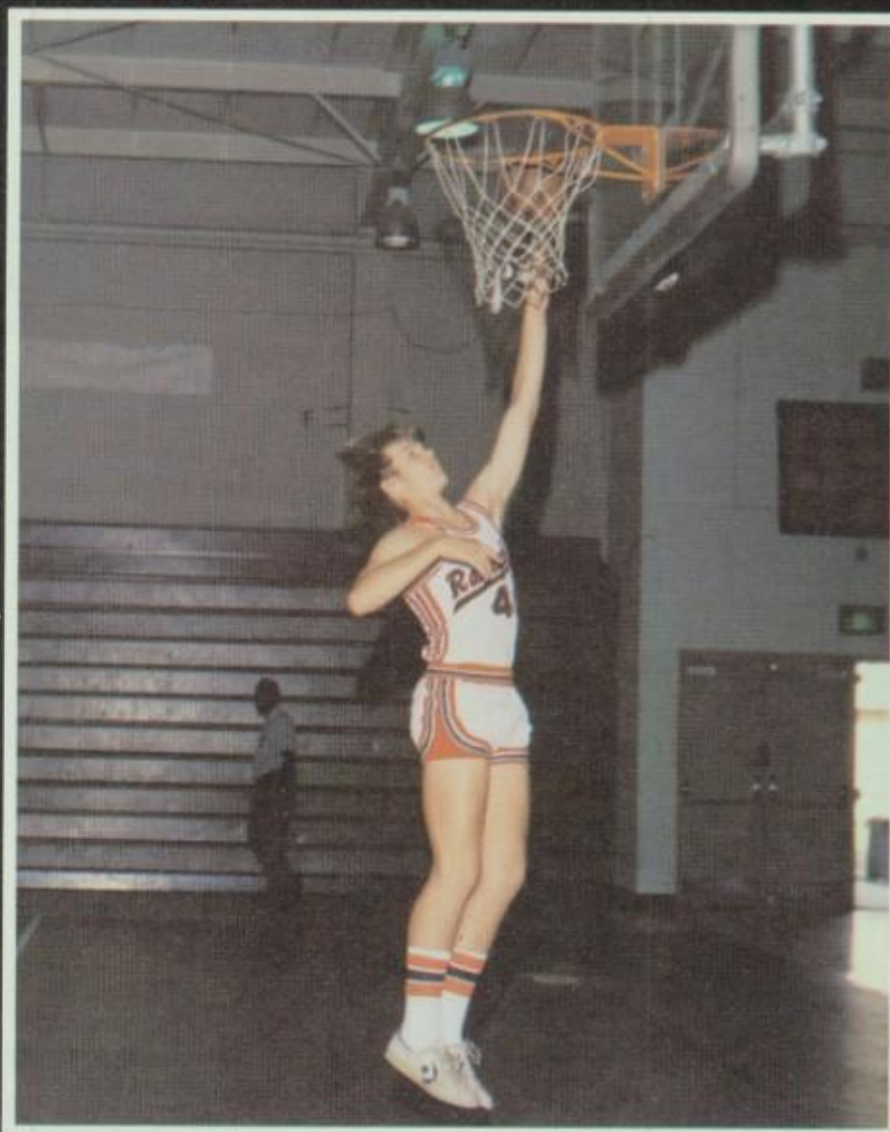

Students Recharge Themselves With Food.

Bari Turner "adds life" to her day while drinking a coke. Some 1st lunch block students are doing anything they possibly can while impatiently waiting in line for some food. Cary Christopher thinks all that food is gonna make her grow. Little does SHE know. Gena Bland says, "Milk is a natural."

Muscular Energy Of Athletes

Ready, set, go, and he's off.

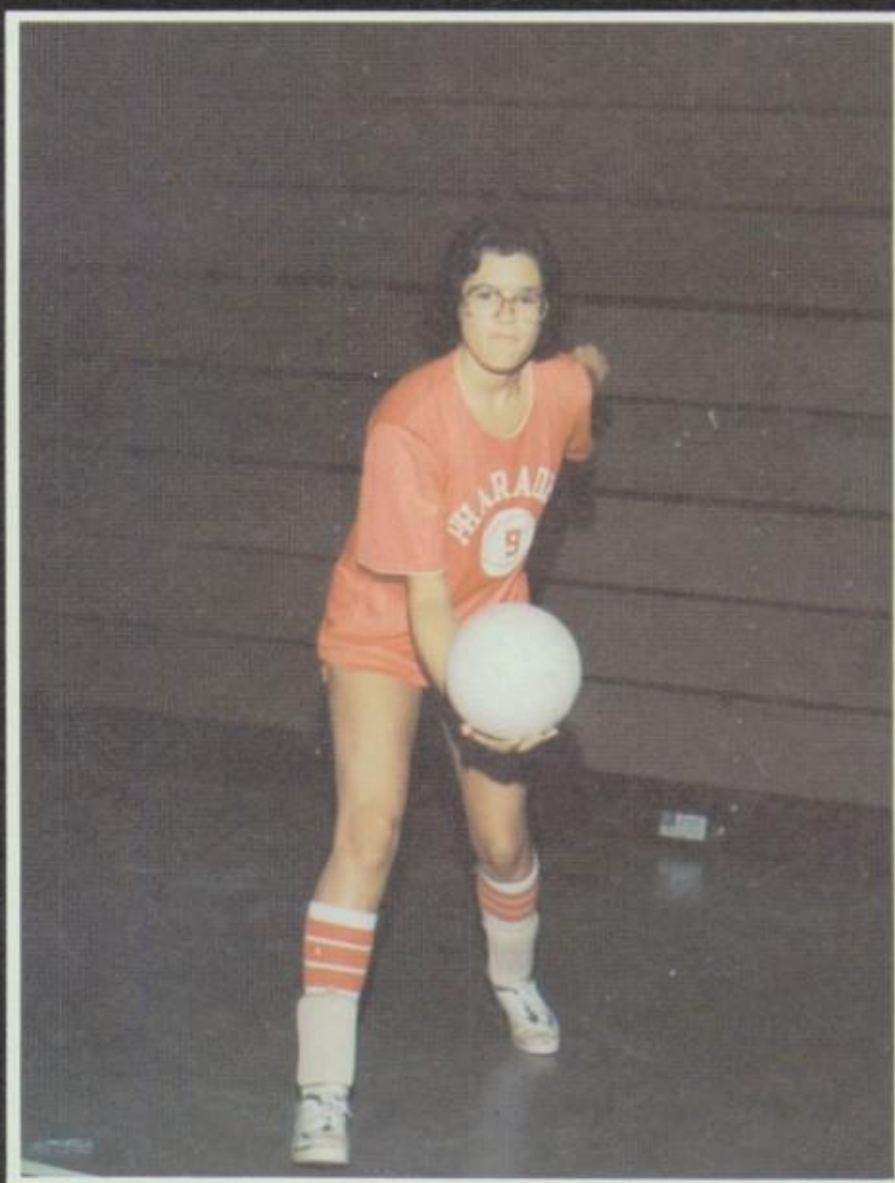

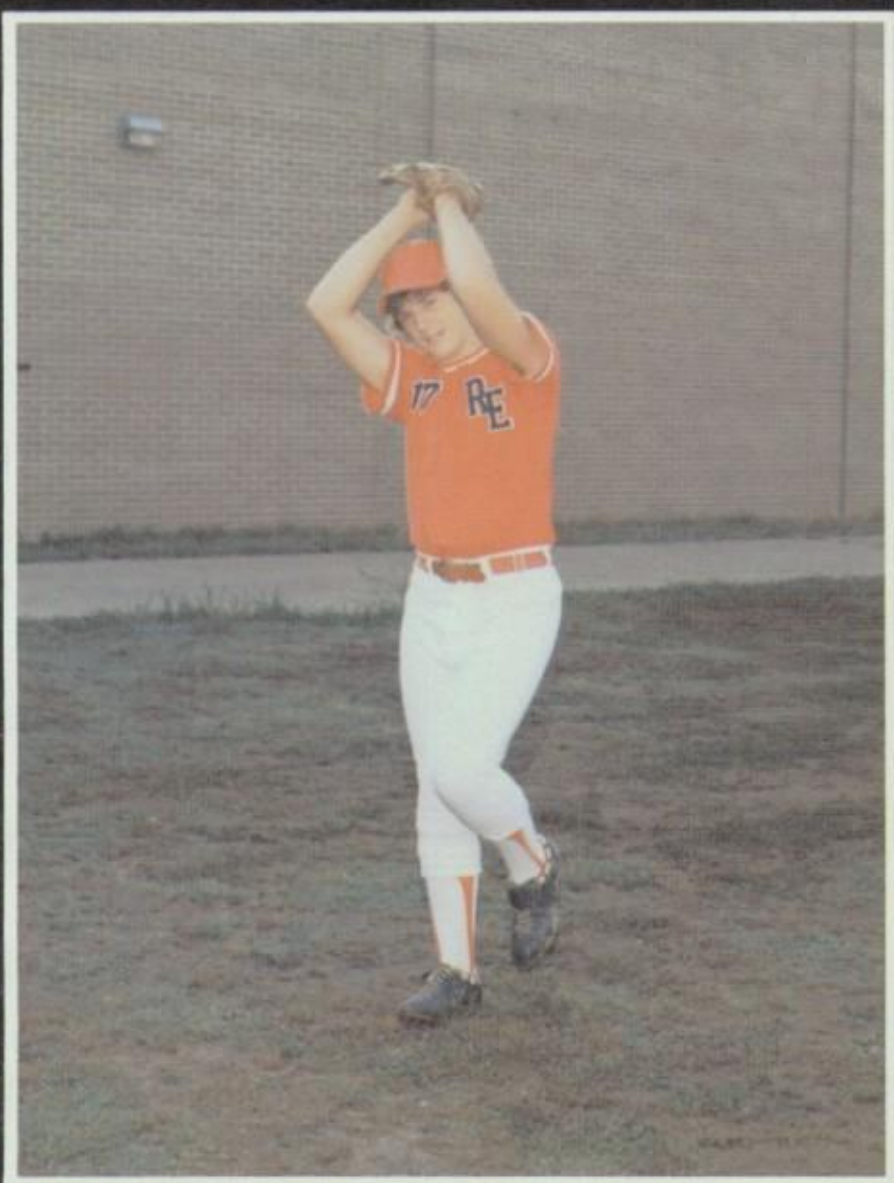

John Sadler is one of the many prize runners on our track team. Warming up with a "lay up," Geddes Self prepares for a win over Craigmont. Wrestlers, Gary Nicholson and Dwayne Green, have it pretty good because they can practice on each other. WAIT!!! We want you both to be able to compete not just one of you.

Produces A Winning Team

Number 20, Steve Barnes brings REHS one touchdown closer to our usual victory over Bartlett. Corizine makes an excellent pitcher as he warms up before the game. Debbie Cisneros, one of our many outstanding woman athletes, prepares to serve at a Saturday morning volleyball match.

Clubs Require Extracurricular Energy For

Clubs are an important part of R. E. — the energetic pastime. Matt Vaughn, a member of the Ecology Club, plants a tree during ecology week to help beautify our school. Drama Club members are practicing and planning for their famous spring play, adding pleasure and enjoyment to a few school days out of the year. Sharon Music is in action for SAE. Helping in Egypt Central Elementary is a large portion of her club duties.

Service, Money-Raising, and Social Participation.

Some of us remember those scrumdillyicious candy bars SAE and a few other clubs sold during the year. Cindy Birmingham sells the candy bar which put SAE over the $200 mark. Pam Johnson takes up dues in front of the canteen for SSS, the largest girls club on campus. Do you know how many popcorn kernels Mu Alpha Theta has in the jug?

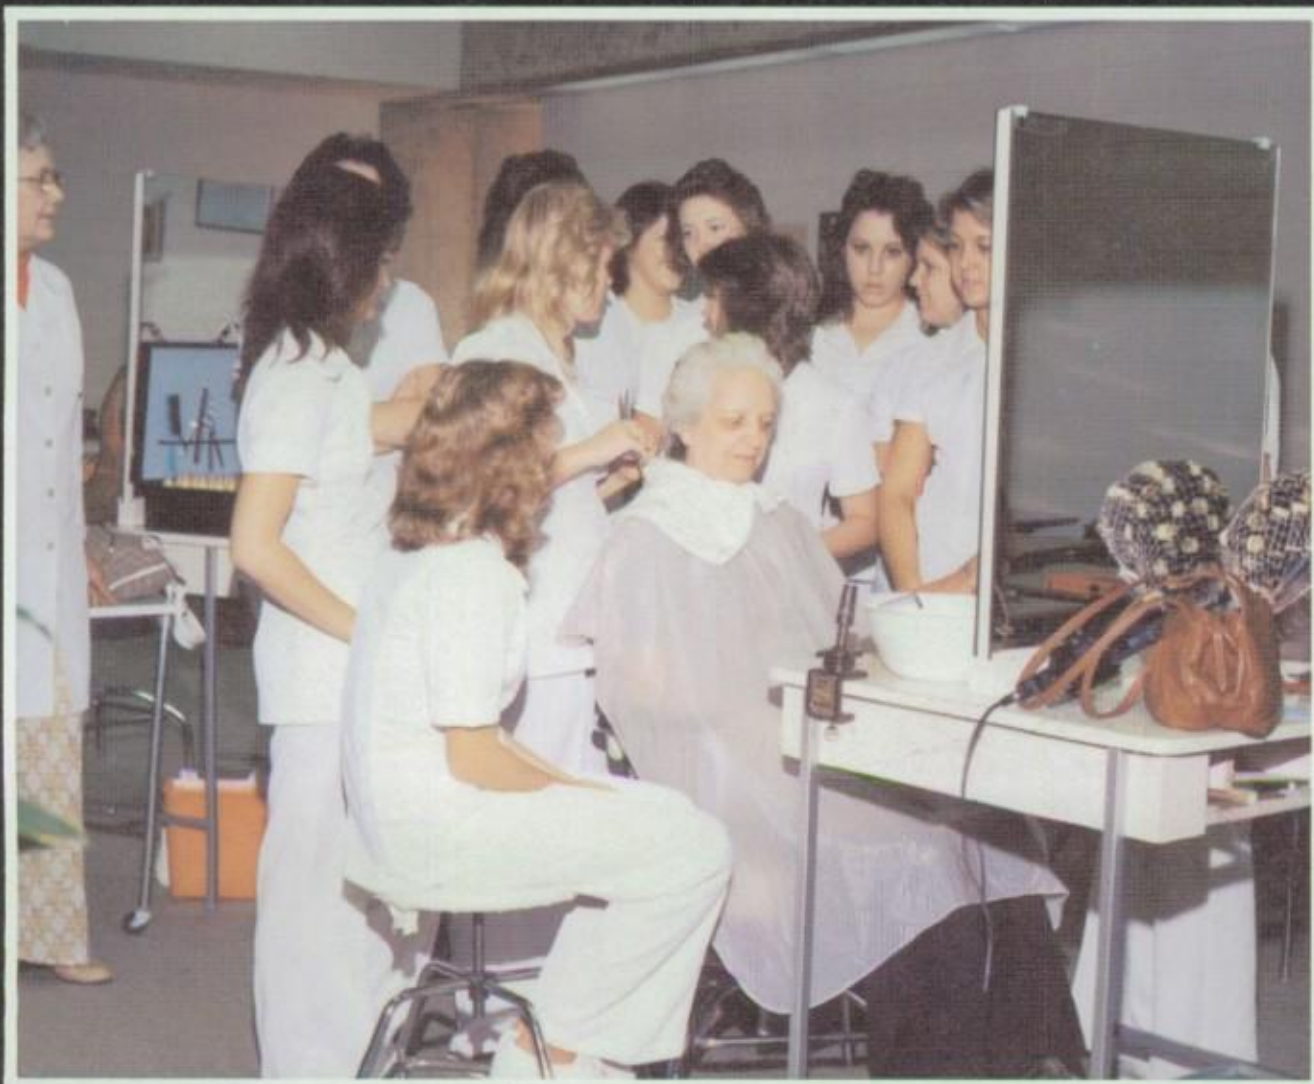

Vocational Students

Vocational education is a large part of R. E. The vocational students now even have their own new building. Jimbo Taylor makes use of the mechanical facilities while doing "open-heart surgery" on an engine while Barbie Leindecker observes attentively. Mr. Anderson teaches his students in the field of electronics. Even if they don't understand the chart, it's colorful.

Use Their Skilled Energy

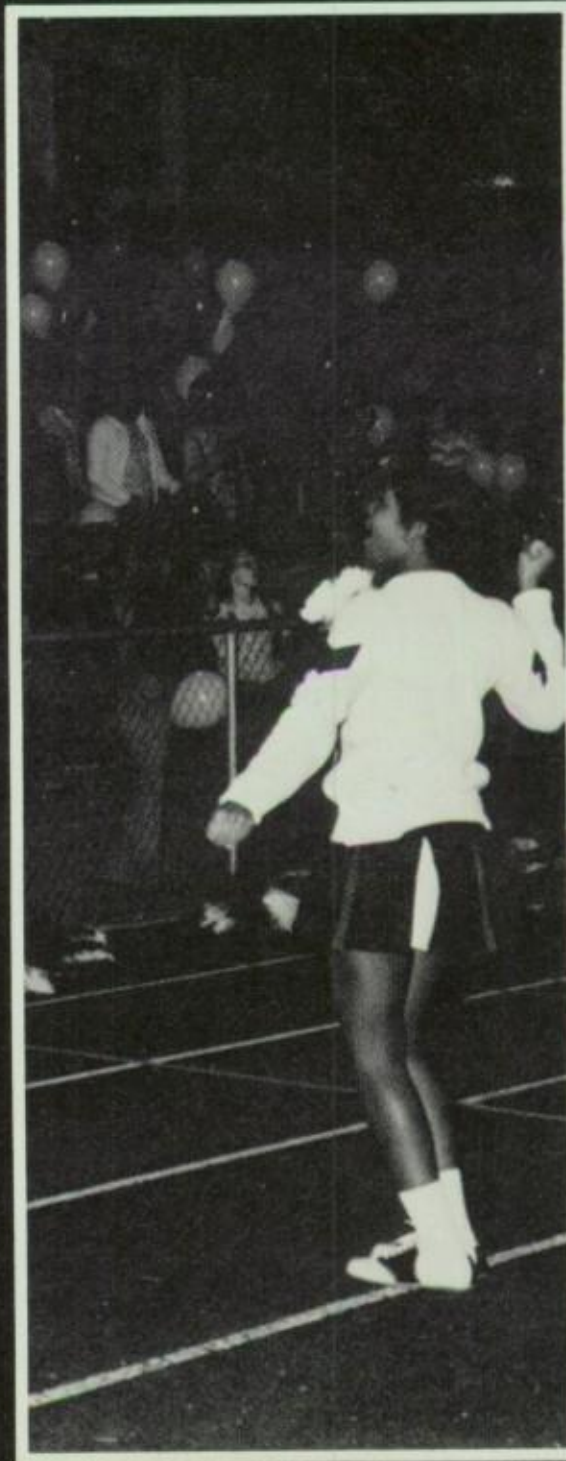

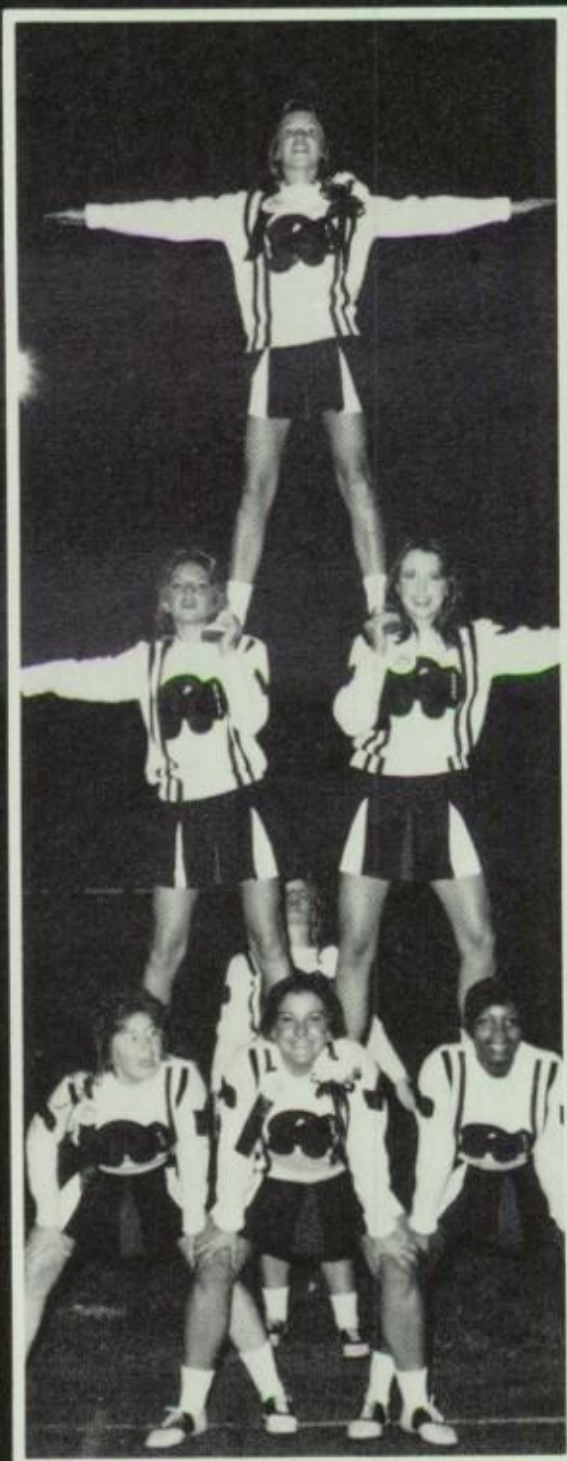

The cosmetology students are participating in a group study. Rhonda Perry and Teresa Albright seem to differ on the technique of cutting the woman's hair. Couch Sublett's shop students are preparing to make something. They just haven't decided what yet. Dennis McKee, an advanced shop student, has moved on to an individual project and appears to know his business well.

Cheerleaders Exercise Spirit Energy.

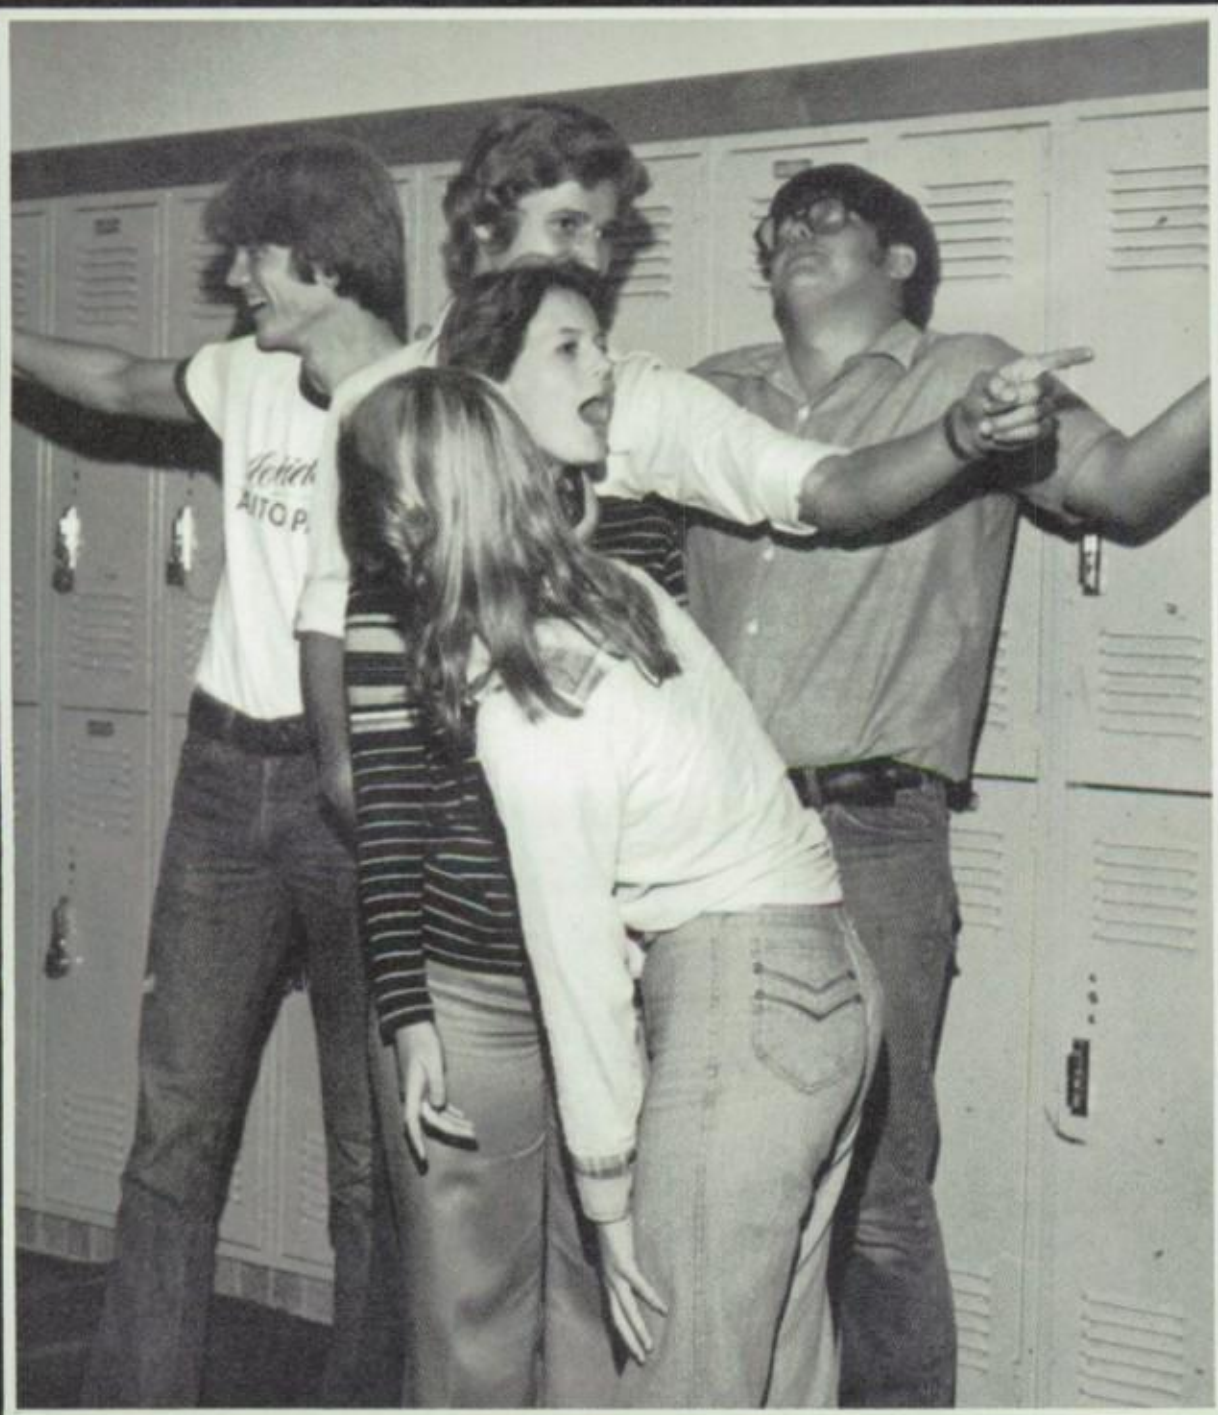

Filling our school with spirit, pep and enthusiasm are the R. E. varsity cheerleaders. This year at the Mid-South Fair in competition with 60 other schools, our cheerleaders received a superior ribbon. The disco dance was one of the best parts of their routines this year. To raise money the cheerleaders sold spirit ribbons, as Cindy Piper exhibits with Rhonda Perry. As anyone can see pyramids are what make our cheerleaders well-known. Somone cheers her team on.

Seniors Activate Authoritative Energy.

The senior year of a student's school days tend to be the most important or most cherished one. The beginning is always the most fun because the freshmen don't know where their classes are and the seniors are able to make an idiot of themselves in Mrs. Gaddie's class as Kathy Ward does in a play taken from Beowulf. S-E-N-I-O-R-S! Seniors make the very best PHARAOHS!

Band Produces

Lynn Russell twirls her fire batons as the marching band plays on. The marching band plays perfectly as Patty Parker, the drum majorette, leads them in a song during halftime entertainment. It looks like Patty Parker has the band members playing "follow-the-leader."

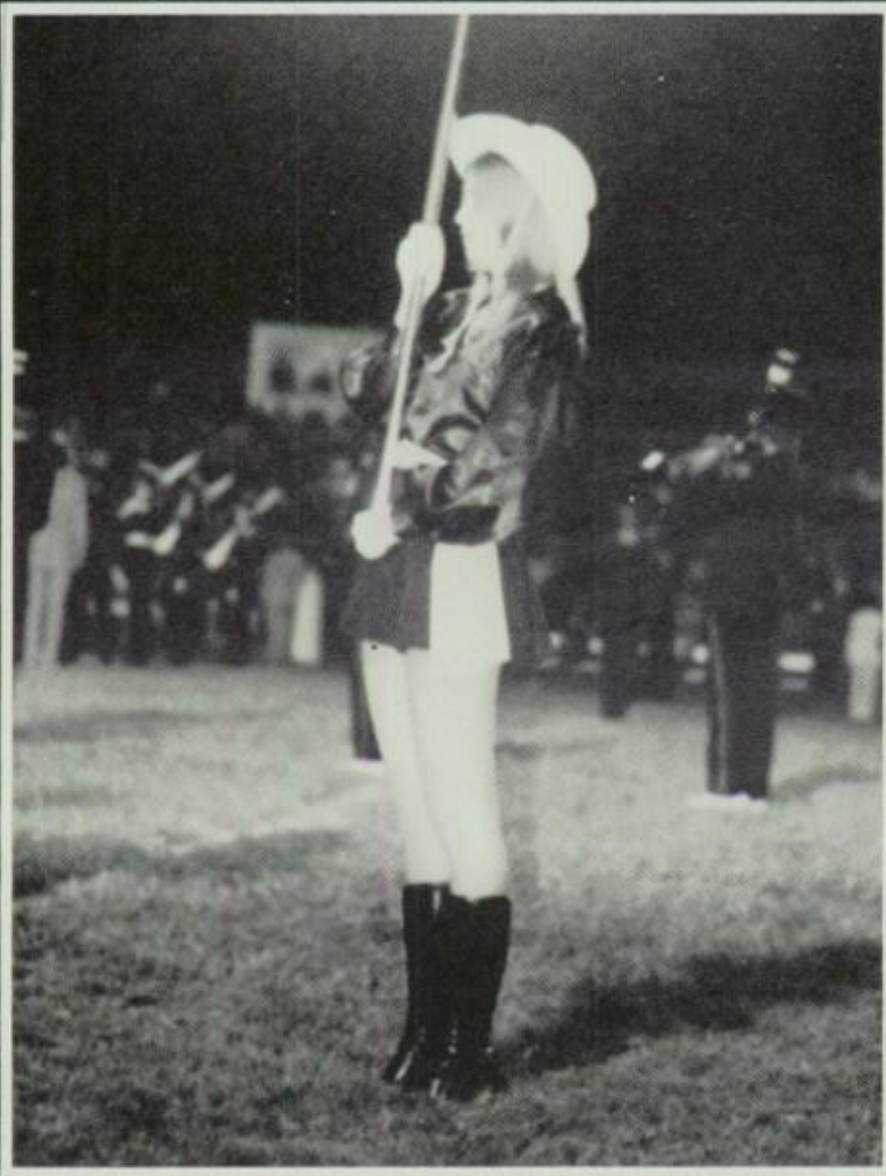

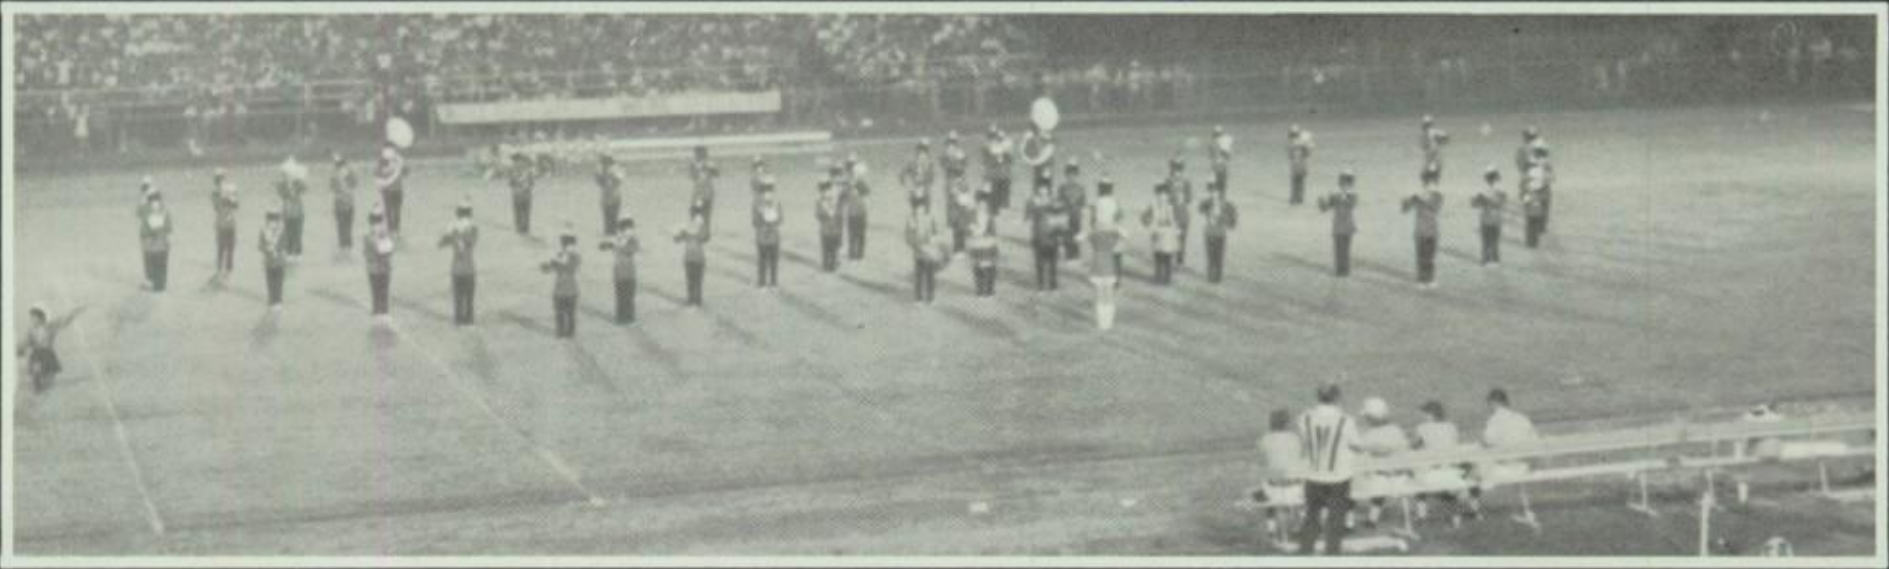

Energy At Games

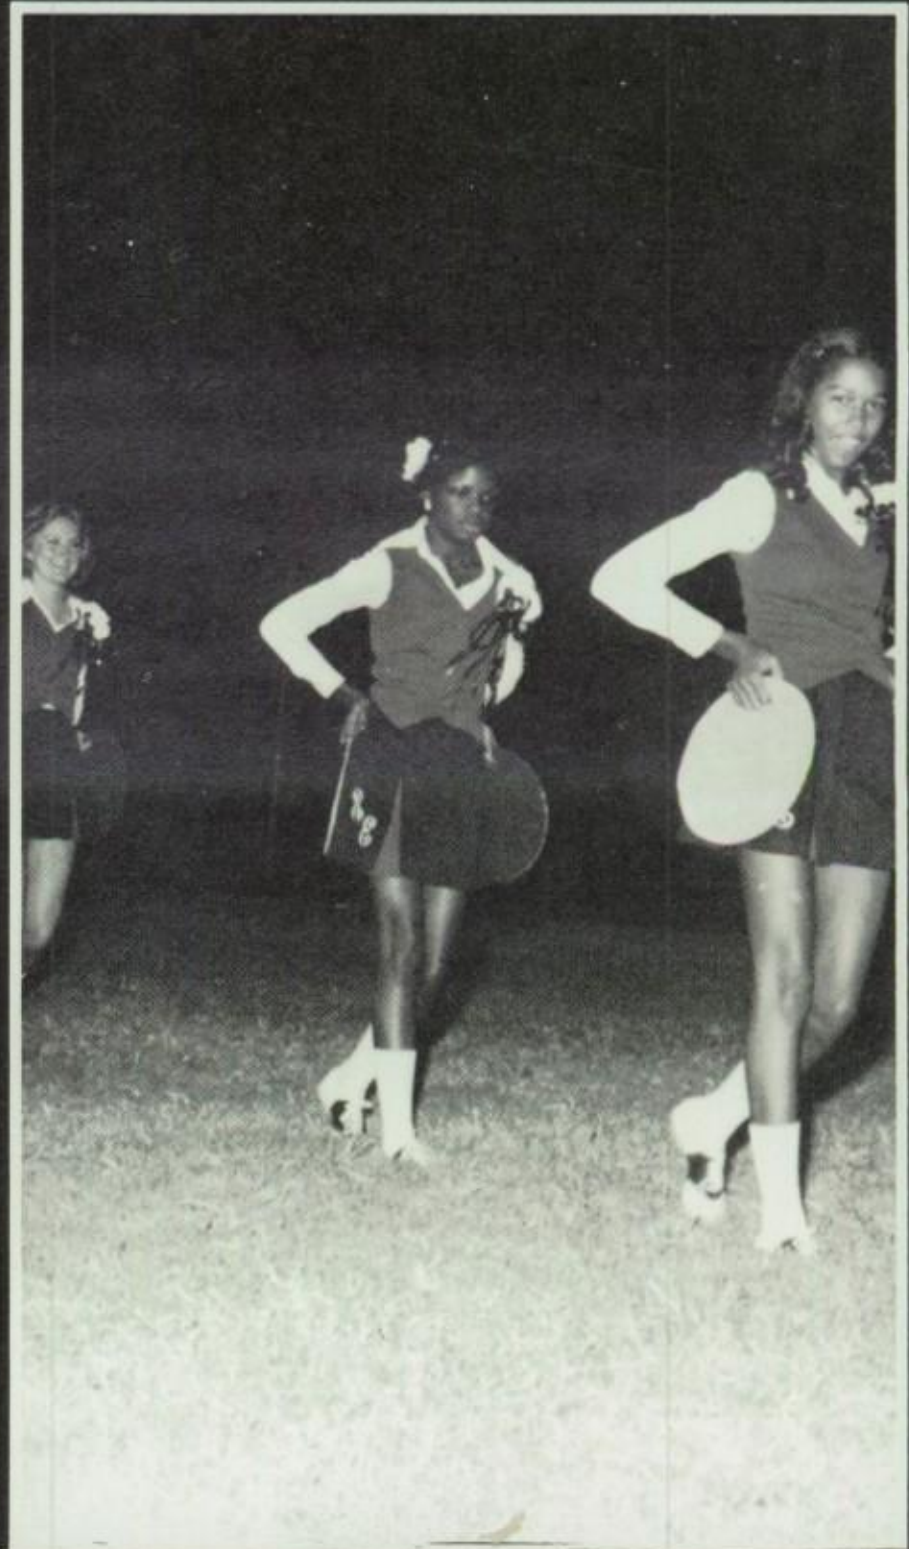

The band plays a large part at the games beside halftime activities. Leading the band through GO PHARAOHS GO is Tony Cutler, our male band major. Focusing on Patti full front view we see she's proceeding to lead the band across the field. Billy Vincent under the direction of Patty "makes music" on his saxophone.

Band, Drill Team, And Flag Corps Add

The Drill Team fills our field with dance routines, accompanied by the band. They present routines using different props such as hats or colored discs. The Flag Corps is another halftime decoration. They display marching as their flags add color and precision movements.

Highlights To Halftime Activities

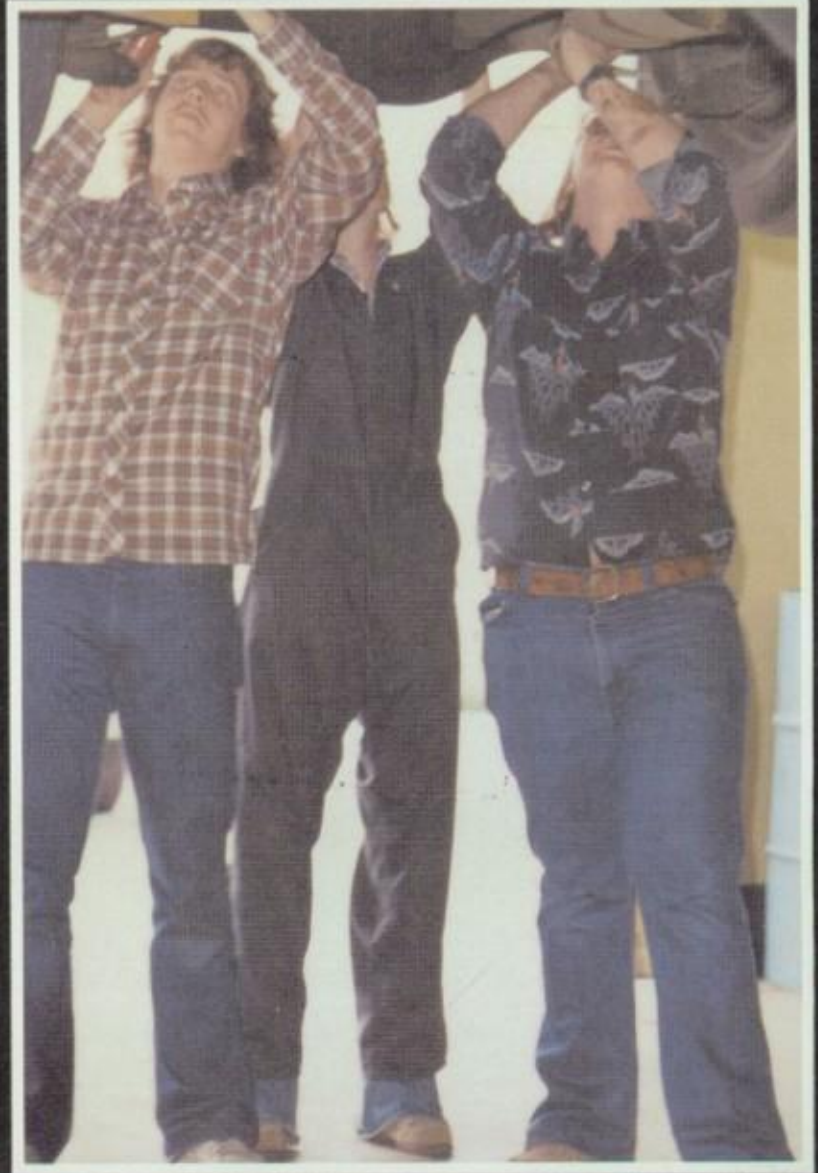

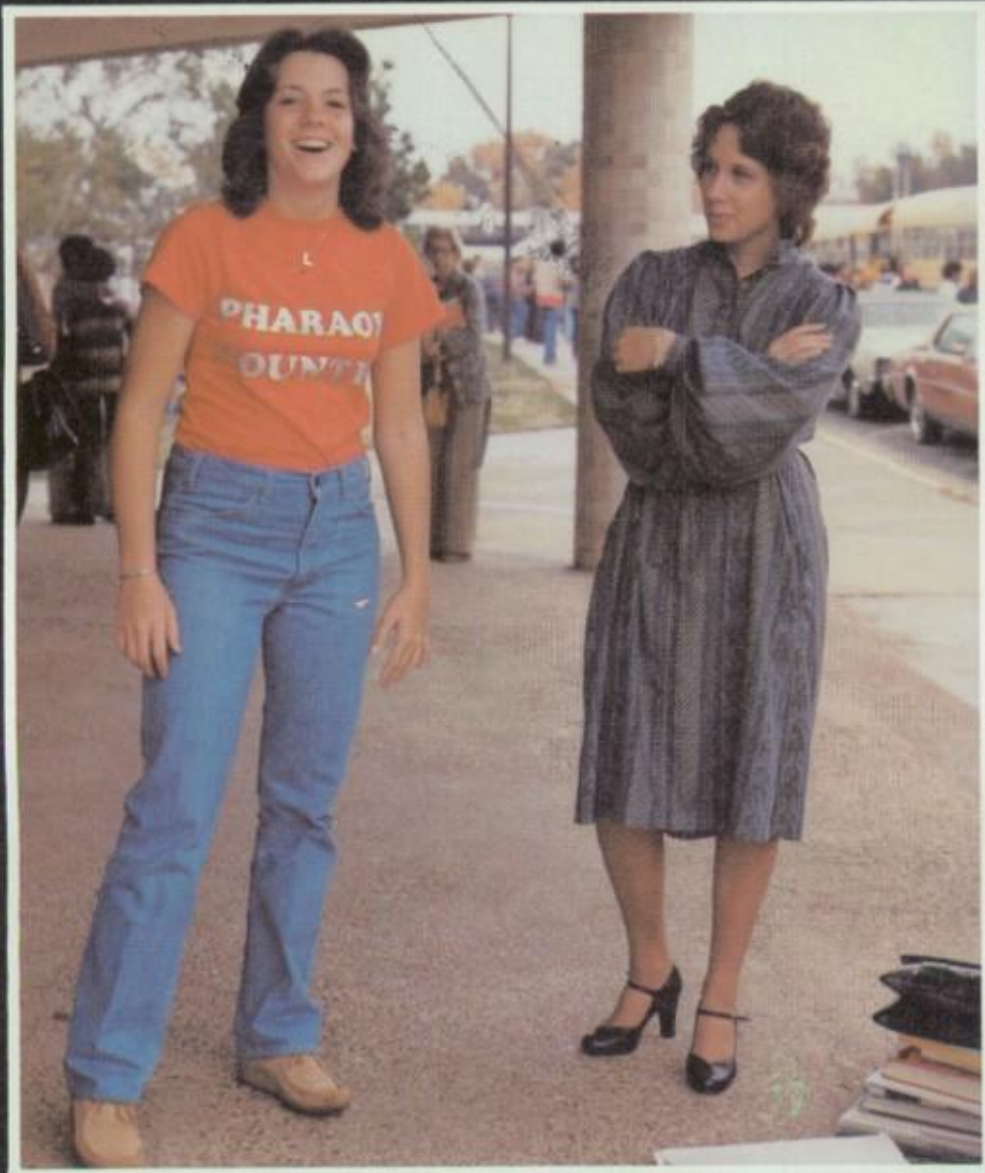

Monica Smith is about to lose her flag to the wind. ROTC draws attention with their skilled rifle drills. The Drill Team practice hard for perfection in their routines at games and Pep Rallies. "Goat Hill is just about the only place with enough room to practice" they say.

ENERGY

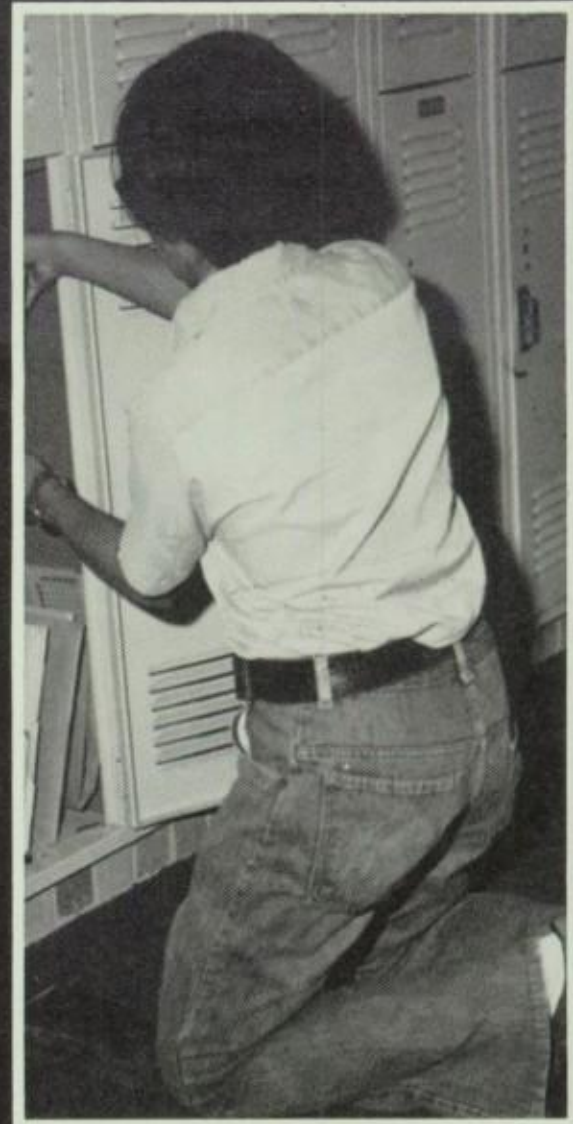

IS EVERYWHERE

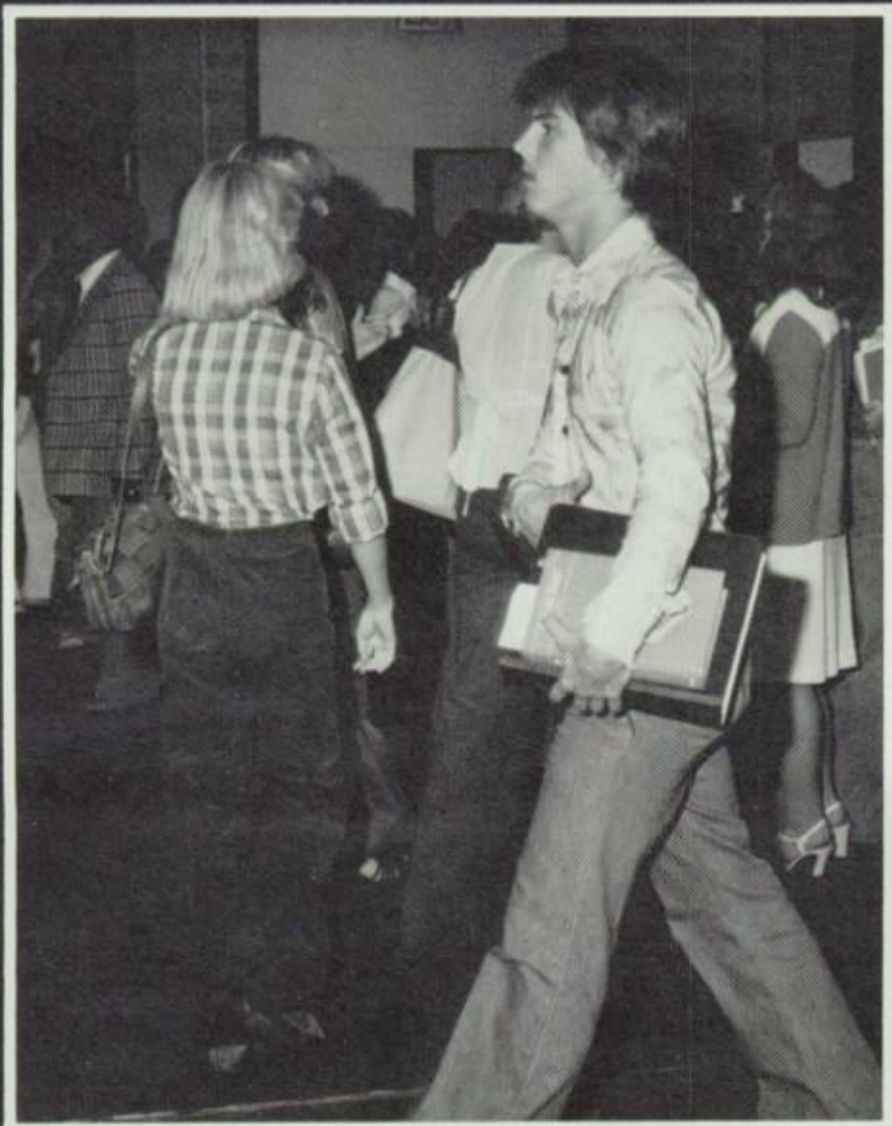

It Takes No Special Source

Yeah!!! The bell we have been waiting for has rung. Many students rush out the door after a tiring day and loss of energy, while others tackle their locker for needed books. Still many like Carrie Pollack, Charlotte Davidson, Cindy Bradfield, and Cindy Kirk choose to sit on the front steps.

Of Energy To Make It To Our Homes

The only thing on Mark Keleta's mind is going home! Cindy Paschall looks like she's happy to be going home, but Mary Reynolds doesn't look like she's too sure. We're homeward bound and homework bound.

Homeroom Representatives

Donna Bird
Homeroom Coordinator

The '78 SENIORS have been particularly adventurous this year. Our dependable representatives who kept the communication lines covered, were ably coordinated by Donna Bird. Besides the traditional bake sales and car washes, the ranking class participated in a sweater sale, a pot and plant sale, Pink Queen Pageant, Almost Anything Goes, and a Gong Show. The money from those projects and the massive dues drive was in preparation for the two sublime events of a high school career: graduation and the prom. The prom was held at Holly Hills Country Club. Suzy Gray and the other officers accomplished a fine job, the finest ever, in leading the CLASS OF '78 through their greatest year at RALEIGH-EGYPT.

Now it's all over. I've gone through twelve years of school. No more worrying, will I be voted most attractive or most dependable and getting up at 5:30 a.m. just to get ready for school. No more worrying if I'm going to have a date on Saturday night just to impress everyone. But now I'm taking a bigger step toward maturity because my future lies ahead. I wonder . . . is it all over or is it just beginning?

Well, I'm out! I finally am set free. No more having to face all those "Hi!" happy people. I don't have to go to those crazy pep rallies and watch those cheerleaders jump up and scream their lungs out. But ya know, come to think of it: it wasn't so bad sitting with my friends and remembering this is my Senior year. MY Senior year. The last year I'll have to sit in that crowded canteen and try to look like I'm enjoying it. But I did like being around my friends even if I was cramped. My friends, my last year to walk through the halls of R.E. with them and create high school memories. I guess it's good-bye to the past and hello to the future.

JUNIORS

President — Jimmy Davis
 Vice-President — David Young
 Secretary — Karen Altman
 Treasurer — Benita Ochoa

Juniors, who claim to be on top of everything, have tried their hardest to prove it true. Starting their climb at the beginning of the year, they held many money-raising projects such as a car wash, bake sales, and a carnation sale. During Spirit Week the Juniors continued their drive and succeeded in winning the Spirit Stick and Spirit Chain. In helping boost all Pharaohs' spirit, balloons were sold at the Homecoming football game. Also contributing to students' interest was the co-sponsoring of a dance with the Sophomore class. One of the most important highlights of their year was the receiving of long-awaited class rings, which pointed the way to the top for the enthusiastic Junior class.

Proud and Loyal
Onward, Bravely
We're the class of 1980

This year the sophomore class has grown, not only in body, but in spirit and mind. Starting off on the right foot during their freshman year, the class of '80 began their fund drives by selling candles and followed through this year by holding a candle sale, car wash, and promoting "little critters" on Ground Hog Day. In the next two years, the Sophomores hope to become bigger and better with the help of those who give their talents through leadership, organization, and cooperation.

FRESHMEN ARE THE BEST!!
FRESHMEN, BETTER THAN THE REST!
HEY! HEY! WHAT DO YOU SAY?
HERE COME THE FRESHMEN — MAKE WAY!

Being Freshmen this year turned out very exciting for the class of '81. Most of their time was spent getting acquainted with the halls and traditions of Raleigh-Egypt, including the honor of being hung over the railing, buying elevator tickets, and having Seniors thump them with their class rings. The ninth grade saw what high school pep rallies were really like and dived right in with much enthusiasm for the PHARAOHS! They have taken their first step in the challenge of becoming a part of the unified body of Raleigh-Egypt.

Miss Raleigh Egypt

The seniors were proud to select Suzy Gray as Miss Raleigh Egypt '78. During her four years at RE, Suzy contributed much of her time to various extra-curricular activities. She has been a member of the Student Council, Pep Club, and SSS for four years. During her sophomore year she was quite active in Junior Achievement. Responsibilities grew as Suzy won election for the Class President her Junior and Senior years. Suzy's Senior activities include SCROLL Staff, Poetry Club, and Winter Sports Homecoming Representative. Suzy's ambitious qualities have succeeded in gaining her admission to Baptist Nursing School in the Fall.

Mr. Raleigh Egypt

Joe Sanders must have been born running. With all his awards he isn't even considering quitting til the 1980 Olympics are over and a gold medal hangs around his neck. His many awards at RE include a participant in the Summer Junior Olympics in his Freshman year. In his Sophomore year he was a participant in the Summer Junior Olympics with a ninth place finish in the national mile walk race. In his junior year Joe had a second place finish in the national mile run. This year Joe is a league, city, and regional champion, also All City and All State. Besides school activities Joe is the basketball coach at Coleman Elementary and coach of the city team. He's even been on TV three times. Joe is truly an outstanding runner and an outstanding Mr. Raleigh Egypt.

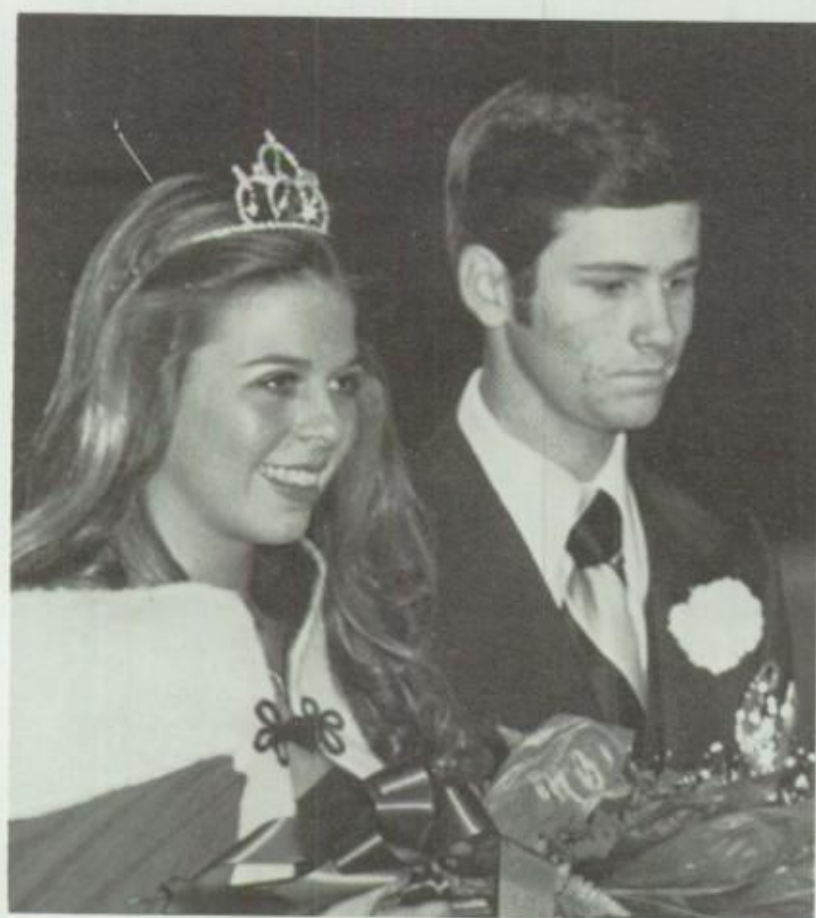

Homecoming Queen Kathie Crowe

The 1976 Homecoming Queen, Cindi Richards, presented her crown to Kathie Crowe, the 1977 Homecoming Queen who with no reluctance accepted the honor. The alternates chosen by the student body were:

1st Alternate — Susan Baskin

2nd Alternate — Cindy Piper

Apparently Kathie looks quite pleased by being our new 1977-78 Homecoming Queen.

Winter Sports Queen

Denise Cheek

By the expression on the Queen's face, we can tell without any doubt how proud and honored Denise Cheek felt in being chosen by the whole student body as their '78 Winter Sports Homecoming Queen. Her escort was Randy Richardson.

The alternates were: 1st Alternate — Pam Gish and Brian Ward. 2nd Alternate — Michelle White and Chuck Lucas.

The 1978 Sphinx Queen Pageant began the scene with what one may call some "priss" and the girls danced their way through the opening number and into many hearts, including the judges. Other events in the pageant were talent competition, evening gown competition and an elegant dinner and a speech given by each contestant.

The escorts added some zest to the show when they danced their way into EVERYBODY'S heart with the help of Elvis and his song, "Jailhouse Rock."

The conclusion of the pageant was when the tension all began. The five finalists were announced and 4th alternate was Sharon Russell, 3rd alternate was Lisa Kallaher, 2nd alternate was Paula Davis, and 1st alternate was Cindy Kuehn and the new 1978 Sphinx Queen was Reva Belyeu.

Science Fair Winner

Due to technical difficulties beyond our control, James Anthony was unable to appear in the 1977 SPHINX. That was a shame because he received one of the highest awards given in the Mid-South. The 1978 SPHINX is proud to display his project, "Geodesic Airship — A New Idea".

James' model was made of simple metal clothesline purchased at a common hardware store, but it could support the weight of a full grown man. Why? Because by using principles for geodesic dome building, an aircraft can be strengthened many times over present strength. After winning 1977's Memphis-Shelby County Science and Engineering Fair, James took his project to Cleveland, Ohio, where he competed in the International Science Fair.

James is now a student at Christian Brothers College, where he continues his research of gravity and science.

Teenagers Of The Week

Pepper Dill

What two things do Pepper Dill and the REHS band have in common? Why the trombone of course! Pepper has been a member of the band for 4 years and a trombone soloist for 2. He also enjoys playing the banjo, the harmonica, and singing. Among his many honors are National Honor Society, Mu Alpha Theta and Student Council President. Pepper has been called to be a preacher and plans to attend Northeast Jr. college. From there he would like to attend a theological seminary in New Orleans.

Patty Phelan

Guilty or not guilty? This is one of the decisions Patty Phelan will have to make every day as she pursues a career in law and jurisdiction. Patty is a member of the Church of Ascension and is "one of the few female ushers" in her congregation. She has served the church youth council President and is a member of the Memphis Dioceses Total Youth Ministry Board. Her favorite activity is being a counselor with the Muscular Dystrophy Association. She is also a member of the Zoo Action Program. Patty wants to attend Radcliffe College in the Fall.

A Note From The Co-Editors

Together, we would like to express appreciation to you for letting us play a part in preserving some of your high school memories. Although times passed quickly during this year, we hope that we have been able to capture a few special moments for everyone through out 1978 SPHINX. We realize that the publication of your book could not have been possible without the dedication and devotion of all the annual staff members. We would like to take this opportunity to especially thank: Susan Baskin, Lisa Burleson, Liz Camp, Laura Hollandsworth, Lisa Kallaher, Cindy Kuehn, JoJo Longfield, Patty Phelan, Kelly Ray, Lynn Russell, Kelly Summitt and Susan VanWyck. A special thanks goes to our typing assistants Vicky Boco, Marty Malin, and Bari Turner.

One person who deserves more credit than we have acknowledged is our special sponsor, Mrs. Annie T. Ricks. We want to thank her for her time, effort and sacrifices that she has devoted to each of us and the yearbook. Without her dedication the 1978 SPHINX yearbook would not have been possible.

Memories are forever in your yearbook!

Everybody is a "Star" in the 1978 yearbook.

To a fulfilling future.
